Proudly Presents
Carnatic Raagas based Hindustani Classical concert

By: Smt. Vaijyanthi Gopinath (Vocal)

Accompaniments: Shri. Tanmay Lele (Tabla)
Shri. Venkatesh Srinivasan (Harmonium)

On: Sunday, June 27, 2010 @ 4:00 PM

At: The UNF Student Union Auditorium, Jacksonville
Building #58, Room #2704 (<https://www.unf.edu/map/>)

Vaijyanthi Gopinath (Jacksonville) is a student of Smt. Lakshmi Shankar, the renowned singer and exponent of the Patiala Gharana style of music. Mrs. Gopinath has been learning Hindustani Classical music for over twenty years and has given several performances both as a solo artist and with her teacher all over the country.

Dr. Tanmay Lele is on the faculty of Chemical Engineering at UF. He learned tabla for many years from Shri Anant Lele in Bombay.

Venkatesh Srinivasan (Merrill Lynch, Jacksonville) had his original training in Bombay. His unique style of playing the Harmonium with western chords and improvisation techniques come from his training at Sri Sathya Sai Institute of Higher Learning, Bangalore.
